Sunshine Rare Coins Email Newsletter #8 Philadelphia ANA 2018 Edition!

Welcome to my September email newsletter. Since my last newsletter, I have been busy buying and selling coins, including at the recent ANA World's Fair of Money show in Philadelphia.

ANA Show Report

The ANA World's Fair of Money is the biggest show of the year. I was there for close to a whole week, and it was a great show from start to finish. From the moment I arrived at the show, the action was nonstop. Between auction lot viewing, meeting with customers and the 5 full days that I was on the ANA bourse floor I was slammed the entire show.

For the first time in many years, the ANA show was held in a East Coast city - Philadelphia, the home of the US Mint. The show was packed with collectors and dealers, and the attendance was the the best in years, with close to 10,000 people attending. The US Mint displayed three of the famous 1933 Double Eagles, and the ANA Museum showcase had some incredible rarities on display including the finest known 1792 Half Disme graded PCGS MS-68 and an original 1861 Confederate Half Dollar graded PCGS SP-40 CAC.

Both Heritage and Stacks had strong auctions with tens of millions of dollars worth of coins and currency being sold between the two companies. Stacks sold the finest known 1913 Liberty Nickel from the Eliasberg collection for $4,560,000. Heritage sold a newly discovered 1854 S $5 in NGC XF-45 for $2,160,000.

I had strong sales overall at the show, and I moved both new and older coins. The highlight for me was the sale of a group of extremely rare Fugio Cent patterns that I placed with a good client, including an example that features a stars in rings reverse, and a unique die trial example that features the reverse of a Braided Hair Large cent! Buying at the show was harder than expected as there weren't many quality coins on the floor. However, I did manage to buy a couple beautiful coins at the show. Since the show I have been working hard and have found some great coins that I have just listed on the website.

My next major show I will be attending is the October Whitman Baltimore show. Baltimore is my favorite show location - it's easy to get to and there is a large amount of collectors and dealers that attend. It's always a great show. Stacks will be selling a great collection of extremely rare Colonial coins, in addition to offering some highly desirable 1792 patterns.

Please keep checking the website in the next few weeks because I add new coins frequently. If you are looking to sell quality Bust or Seated coins or have anything that you might want to consign to me - please contact me. Also, please let me know if you have any coins on your want list that I can help you find - not all of my coins make the website. I have a growing number of collectors who give me want lists so I can help them find that special coin.

I also set up at the Parsippany, NJ Show almost every month. It's the first Sunday of the month and it's always a fun one day local show with good public attendance.

I have just added a large group of choice NEWPS to the website from the ANA show including some premium quality Bust and Seated coins across all price ranges.

Please visit my website below to see my full inventory, and email me at davidbsunshine@yahoo.com if you see anything of interest.
